DETAILED ACTION

This office action is in response to applicant's remarks filed on June 3rd, 2008.
Currently, claims 1-20 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Species 2 shown in Figures 3A, 3B, and 4.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Art Unit: 2819

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Claims 1-7 and 19 are related to species 1 shown in Figure 2.

Claims 8-18 and 20 are related to species 2 shown in Figures 3A, 3B, and 4.

The following claim(s) are generic: 1 and 8; 19 and 20.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Species 1 claimed in claims 1-7 and 19 describe the invention as having two current mirrors and a pair of diodes that are configured to decouple one of the two current mirrors from an input signal if a fault occurs. Species 2 claimed in claims 8-18 and 20 describe a single current mirror (or a plurality thereof) and a pair of diodes that are configured to select a reference voltage to provide a net current to the current mirror (or plurality thereof).

These inventions have a different function and structure and further require different areas of search. The examiner apologizes for not making this restriction requirement in the first action. A response to the applicant's first action is below.

Drawings

The drawings are accepted and the previous objection has been withdrawn.

Specification

The specification is accepted and the previous objection has been withdrawn.

Claim Objections

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112
